Discover Your True Colors that allow you to Shine Brightly!

LEARN HOW COLOR ANALYSIS CAN ELEVATE YOUR IMAGE AND CONFIDENCE

STEPHANIE BETTNER

Stephanie has been working with women for 28 years in the beauty industry to help them elevate their confidence with skin care and makeup application as a Mary Kay Independent Sales Director. She wanted to offer women a way to elevate their image and became Certified in Color Analysis.

Stephanie sees "color analysis" as a tool to help women create a head-to-toe wardrobe that completely elevates their whole image. Once we discover a woman's "color code" and understand how to pair colors, patterns, and layers to be in harmony with her dominant features, we unlock new possibilities for wardrobing.

This invaluable color analysis knowledge impacts your makeup, wardrobe, shoe color, purse color, jewelry color, nail color, and the best hair color. All of that equals a head-to-toe approach to showing up and shining brightly in your true colors. We elevate your external presence and that elevates your internal confidence.
