

Three ABWA Members: Lessons Learned as Women in Business

LINDA DaBIERO

MARY GANTT

HOLLY HENGSTEBECK

Join us for an interactive panel discussion with three of our members. What lessons have they learned over the years as women in the world of business? What advice would they give to other women?

There will be plenty of time for questions and answers, and we hope that our attendees will also contribute their own thoughts on the topic!

Linda DaBiero works for Corby Energy Services and is the Financial Controller with a primary focus on process improvements and increasing profitability. Mary Gantt is an Independent Consultant with Creative Memories / Forever (helping people preserve their pictures and older tapes and movies). Holly Hengstebeck is the Controller at dSPACE, Inc., which provides tools for developing, testing, and calibrating electronic control units (ECUs) in the automotive, aerospace, and medical engineering industries.
